

Although registered with the national do not call list, it is only since New Jersey introduced its do not call list that we have received NO calls. To try to lessen the impact of the New Jersey regulations would be an immense backwards step in eliminating nuisance calls.